

Christian Bourgeois

Dr. rer. nat. Dipl.-Chem.
Patent Attorney
European Patent Attorney
European Trademark and Design Attorney

Main focus

Patent law, trade mark law and designs law at German and European level. This includes advising clients in obtaining and implementing industrial property rights as well as preparing patent strategies and drawing up expert reports on the freedom to operate (FTO) and infringements.

Technical focus

Inorganic, analytical, organic and physical chemistry, food chemistry, pharmaceutical chemistry (drugs), life sciences, coatings and dyes, explosive agents and explosives-based procedures.

Career steps

since 2012	Cooperation partner of KNH Patentanwälte
2012	Admission as European Patent Attorney
since 2010	Patent attorney in own firm
2010	Admission as German Patent Attorney
2007-2010	Training to become a patent attorney (patent law firm in Duesseldorf, Duesseldorf Higher Court, German patent and Trade Mark Office and Federal Patent Court)
2003-2007	Doctorate at the Institute for Pharmaceutical and Medical Chemistry at the Westfälische Wilhelm University (WWU) in Muenster
1998-2003	Interdisciplinary studies of chemistry combined with business administration at WWU in Muenster
1996-1998	Training to become a chemical-technical assistant (CTA) at Bochum Vocational College

Languages

German, English

Memberships

- German Association of Patent Attorneys (PAK)
- Fédération Internationale des Conseils en Propriété Industrielle (FICPI)
- Deutscher Sprengverband (German Association of Explosives Engineers)